

60 SECONDS WITH... ADIL MOHAMEDBHA BARRISTER SERLE COURT

Q What Motivated You To Pursue A Career In Law?

A A career in law sounded challenging and rewarding – it has not disappointed.

Q What Do You See As The Most Rewarding Thing About Your Job?

A Helping people at a time when things might feel overwhelming.

Q Do You Have A New Year's Resolution, And If So, How Do You Plan To Keep It?

A None this year – I've broken too many in the past.

Q What Has Been Your Most Memorable Experience During Your Career So Far?

A Spending one year at the UK Supreme Court with Lords Rodger and Brown and witnessing how the highest court in the land operates was very special.

Q What Is The Most Significant Trend In Your Practice Today?

A Continued increased use of anti-suit (and anti-anti-suit) injunctions.

Q What Is The Best Film Of All Time?

A Amadeus. It might not be the best, but it's my favourite. I've watched it at least 50 times.

Q What Are You Looking Forward To In 2025?

A Better work-life balance.

Q What Songs Are Included On The Soundtrack To Your Life?

A Fast car; One; Porcelain.

Q What Would You Be Doing If You Weren't In This Profession?

A In an alternative reality, I would be a vet.

Q What Cause Are You Passionate About?

A Animal welfare and conservation.

Q Do You Have Any Hidden Talents?

A None whatsoever!

Q Dead Or Alive, Which Famous Person Would You Most Like To Have Dinner With, And Why?

A Sir Alex Ferguson. Spending time with the greatest manager ever would be a privilege (and I would try to convince him to return...).
