Thursday 20 June 2019 at Herbert Smith Freehills LLP

"Unfair prejudice petitions: some tricks of the trade"

Daniel Lightman QC of Serle Court

By reference to recent cases, Daniel will explore how petitioners can exploit the court's wide powers under section 994 of the Companies Act 2006 to obtain relief against parties who were never shareholders in or directors of the relevant company - and how respondents, too, can make use of the ins and outs of this statutory jurisdiction.

Tuesday 9 July 2019 at Herbert Smith Freehills LLP

"Breaking ground in fraud recovery claims: International pursuit of cyber fraudsters and litigation against 'Persons Unknown'"

Paul Lowenstein QC of 20 Essex Street Chambers

Paul will speak about the innovative and effective procedures recently developed for rapidly and effectively chasing, securing and recovering money stolen in the context of sophisticated cyber-fraud, including where money has been dissipated through the hands of fraudsters in many overseas jurisdictions. Paul will speak with reference to the CMOC v Persons Unknown litigation, in which he acted.

Thursday 5 September 2019 at Hogan Lovells LLP

"Enough is enough? setting aside a judgment for fraud"

Neil Hext QC and Tom Shepherd of 4 New Square

Can fraud unravel all? With fraud claims on the rise, the question of what is required to set aside a judgment for fraud becomes more and more relevant. Neil Hext QC and Tom Shepherd explore this topic, looking in particular at the interaction with the abuse of process doctrine and the implications of the recent Supreme Court decision in Takhar v. Gracefield Developments Ltd [2019] UKSC 13.

Tuesday 22 October 2019 at Herbert Smith Freehills LLP

"Developments in vicarious Liability"

Andrew Ayres QC of Maitland Chambers

With several recent key decisions on vicarious liability and more on their way, Andrew will draw together the threads and seek to make sense of them for a better understanding of the law in this important and practical area.

Tuesday 26 November 2019 at Hogan Lovells LLP

"Good faith – how good do commercial parties have to be?"

David Quest QC and Ian Wilson QC of 3 Verulam Buildings

This talk will cover the doctrine of good faith in English commercial contracts. It will focus on recent developments in the application of good faith concepts to commercial agency contracts, 'relational' contracts, and claims for misrepresentation and non-disclosure in commercial relationships.

Attendance is not limited to LSLA members. Anyone can apply for tickets via the website – <http://www.lsla.co.uk> – or via the attached form – an email will be sent confirming your place a few days before the lecture. The cost is £20 per event or £90 for all five (non-members £25 or £115). Our lectures are usually sold out, so please apply early.

The events will start at 6 p.m. and will last approximately one hour, to include a period for questions at the end, and will be followed by drinks.
