

serle court

clerks@serlecourt.co.uk
+44 (0)20 7242 6105

Conor Quigley KC - Arbitrator

Year of Silk: 2003 Year of Call: 1985

cquigley@serlecourt.co.uk
clerks@serlecourt.co.uk

Practice Overview

Conor Quigley KC is registered as an arbitrator with the Shanghai International Arbitration Center. He has recently been appointed as sole arbitrator by IATA in a dispute involving a leading airline and a European airport concerning airport fees. Conor is an expert in EU law generally, including, in particular, State aid and subsidies, anti-trust and competition law, international trade law and fiscal law.

Areas of Expertise

University Posts

Research Fellow, Institute of European and Comparative Law, University of Oxford, 2008-
Fellow in EC Law, Lady Margaret Hall, Oxford, 1991-1996
Honorary Research Fellow, Lady Margaret Hall, Oxford 1996-
Visiting Professor of EC Competition Law and State Aid, College of Europe, Natolin, Poland 2000-01

Professional educational offices

Chairman, Bar European Group, 1992-1994
Member, International Practice Committee, Bar Council, 1995-2000
Chairman, EU Law Section, Union International des Avocats, 2006-2010

Other

Called to English Bar (Gray's Inn) 1985
Called to Irish Bar (King's Inn) 1993
Queen's Counsel 2003
Called to Northern Irish Bar 2009

Education & Qualifications

King's College London, LL.B (1979)
University of Amsterdam, Dip. Eur. Int. (1980)
MA Oxon (1991)

Appointments

Arbitrator of the Shanghai International Arbitration Center's (SHIAC) New Panel. The term for the appointment is three years from 1st May 2018 to 30th April 2021.
