Lance

Year of Silk: 2006 Year of Call: 1987

Practice Overview

Lance practices in commercial, chancery (including company and director disputes) and restructuring/insolvency. He has appeared as Counsel in LCIA and Electricity Arbitration Association arbitrations, involving international and domestic clients. He is regularly instructed by Big 4 accountancy firms to provide legal opinions to (non-lawyer) arbitrators and expert determiners, where each party has instructed its own lawyers to make legal submissions. He sat for 6 years as a Deputy High Court Judge in the Chancery Division and has many years of experience of running a tribunal. He has undertaken a number of highly confidential internal investigations for firms of solicitors.
