Practice Overview

Thomas is a trusts and estates specialist. He has extensive experience in high-value, complex trusts and estates matters with a cross-border dimension and has been involved in some of the most legally significant cases in these areas across the common law world. His practice covers the full range of contentious and non-contentious private client work in England and internationally, including trust administration applications, breach of trust claims, contentious probate, family provision, professional negligence and taxation issues affecting the administration of trusts and estates. He has considerable experience in overseas jurisdictions, including Bermuda, Guernsey, Jersey, Isle of Man, the Bahamas, the Turks & Caicos Islands and the BVI.

Thomas has appeared as Counsel at every level of the court hierarchy in England and Wales from the High Court to the Supreme Court. He has also appeared twice before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council and in courts in several offshore jurisdictions. He is called to the Bar of Bermuda (ad hoc).

Thomas is the editor of the key practitioner works in trusts and estates, namely Lewin on Trusts, Theobald on Wills and Williams, Mortimer & Sunnucks: Executors, Administrators and Probate.

Recommended as a Leading Junior in the latest Chambers UK Bar, Global and HNW directories for Chancery: Traditional, Trusts and Offshore, Thomas is described as "literally indispensable. A complete workhorse, he is really one of the team and rolls up his sleeves. He is incredibly bright and very diplomatic." He is also ranked in the Legal 500 UK Bar (Private Client: Trusts and Probate) and English Bar Offshore.

Thomas's practice also covers the whole range of commercial and chancery work. He has been instructed in several heavy commercial disputes involving trusts or estates elements. He also has a growing practice in charities work, particularly related to the administration of charitable trusts and similar structures.

Areas of Expertise

Private Client Trusts and Probate

Recent work includes:

Investec Trust (Guernsey) Ltd v Glenalla Properties Ltd [2019] AC 271. Instructed by Macfarlanes and Mourant. Thomas acted for the successful parties in 10 appeals heard by the Privy Council from Guernsey. The judgment was hugely important in the trusts industry in articulating for the first time a new rule of private international law based on the status of a trustee.

Equity Trust (Jersey) Ltd v Halabi / ITG Ltd v Fort Trustees Ltd [2023] 2 WLR 133. Instructed by Macfarlanes. Thomas acted in relation to combined appeals from Jersey and Guernsey heard by the Privy Council. These appeals were the first anywhere in the common law world to consider the order of priorities for an "insolvent" trust.

ITG Ltd v Fort Trustees Ltd (2018 to date). Instructed by Macfarlanes. Thomas acts for former trustees in relation to one of the first Alhamrani assessments of trustee costs. Three judgments have already been given by the Royal Court of Guernsey ([2020] GRC 020, [2021] GRC 007 and [2022] GRC 003) and two judgments by the Court of Appeal of Guernsey ([2023] GCA 004; [2023] GCA 009).

In the Matter of the XYZ Trusts (2021 to date). Instructed by Baker McKenzie and Carey Olsen. Thomas acts for trustees in proceedings in Bermuda concerning the restructuring of multiple valuable trusts.

Bicester Rugby Union Football Club Ltd v Payne and Malins (2021). Instructed by Richard Buxton. Thomas acted for a sports club in proceedings in England concerning the validity of a trust established in the 1930s in respect of sports grounds.

Civil Fraud

Recent work includes:

Maroil Trading Inc v Cally Shipholdings Inc ([2020] EWHC 3062 (Comm)). Applications for security for costs in the context of proceedings in England concerning breach of a settlement agreement and separate breaches of duty of confidence. The applications produced two judgments, including an important judgment on the principles for security for the costs of an additional claim ([2020] Costs LR 1697).

Acting on an LCIA arbitration concerning a contractual interpretation dispute.

Acting in relation to a summary judgment application concerning a claim by financial advisers for success fees under various engagement agreements concerning M&A transactions and IPOs.

Advising on a potential claim for wrongful termination of contract in relation to the supply of tyres to mines in East Africa worth approximately $30 million.

Advising a multi-national bank on potential claims against them by personal representatives arising from wrongful payments out of accounts, including potential claims under the Payment Services Regulations 2009.

Advising franchisees on potential claims against a high-profile company acting as franchisor for fraudulent and negligent misrepresentation in relation to franchise agreements.

Advising trustees and personal representatives in relation to potential and actual claims against financial advisers for breaches of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and the FCA Handbook.
