Civil Fraud

Adil has substantial experience in civil fraud matters and is equally well-versed when acting for claimants who seek to make recoveries from fraudsters and defendants who have become mixed up with potential wrongdoing. He has been involved in some of the most high-profile civil fraud disputes in the English courts. He has an established reputation acting for claimants and defendants in connection with interim relief applications (including freezing orders and disclosure orders).

Recent Cases

- Global Sparkle Holdings IV Limited v Ge – Acting (unled) for the claimants in relation to the enforcement of judgments worth in excess of US$230 million against two Chinese businessmen who ultimately owned a property business and related parties to whom assets have been dissipated and who have sought to defend the claims by relying on documents said to have been forged. Adil secured two freezing orders as well as a novel disclosure order against a law firm.
- Acting (unled) for one of the defendants to a major claim (said to be in excess of US$160 million) for fraudulent and wrongful trading in connection with the collapse of a well-known crypto platform.

- Acting (unled) for the defendant in an application for a freezing order, a proprietary injunction and a disclosure order. This was in the context of a dispute concerning the setting up of an investment vehicle which has raised funds in excess of US$100 million. - Advising (unled) a potential defendant who was being threatened to be sued for professional negligence in the context of the 1MDB fraud, a very high-profile fraud which has generated substantial global press coverage. The threatened claim was in excess of US$1 billion.
- Foglia v Cerri – Acting (led by Paul Lowenstein KC) in an audacious fraud involving the theft of millions of euros from a bank account in the Cayman Islands where the monies were then routed via England. The case gave rise to issues concerning the developing “persons unknown” jurisdiction of the English courts in the context of commercial and civil fraud claims.
- Advising (led by Philip Marshall KC) a European bank in connection with its involvement in certain tax-driven transactions generating liabilities of some EUR 300 million being imposed on it. the subject of extensive French criminal proceedings which were brought due to the sheer scale of the fraud and the number of victims affected. The case gave rise to interesting issues regarding the scope of, dishonest assistance, knowing receipt and unjust enrichment claims.

- Motortrak Ltd v FCA Australia Pty Ltd – Acting (led by Hugh Norbury KC) for the claimant. This was a dispute involving a provider of online marketing solutions for the motor industry. The claimant brought a claim of over AUS$30 million for unpaid fees and loss of profits against the Australian arm of a car manufacturer. In its defence, the manufacturer made serious allegations of bribery, contending that various contracts were obtained through corruption. A 3- week trial took place in the Commercial Court in early 2018: see [2018] EWHC 990 (Comm). This is now an important authority on the law of bribery at civil law.
- Dubai Islamic Bank v Oiax Ltd – Acting (led by Hugh Norbury KC) for a corporate guarantor in the latest instalment of the long-running saga of the attempts by Dubai Islamic Bank to recover over US$400 million arising out of the settlement of a fraud against the bank. The case raises novel issues of the effect of foreign illegality on an English law contract. It was due for trial in the first half of 2019 in the Commercial Court.
- Mahdavi v Sterling Avram & Healys LLP – Acting (led by Daniel Lightman KC) for the claimant, the victim of a fraudulent property sale in which the purchase monies were misappropriated by being paid out to third parties by a fraudster working as a consultant at the purported purchaser's law firm. - National Crime Agency v Perry & Others – Acting (led by Philip Jones KC and Daniel Lightman KC) for the defendants in a complex multi-million pound civil recovery claim (believed to be the largest ever). The case raised questions of fraud, tracing, foreign law, insurance, limitation and contractual construction (amongst many others). It also raised complex procedural and disclosure issues (National Crime Agency v Perry [2014] EWHC 3759 (QB)). The case started as a very substantial civil recovery claim brought against an Israeli citizen convicted of having stolen hundreds of millions of Deutschmarks from Israelis. The proceedings were discontinued by the NCA and resulted in the NCA having to pay indemnity costs (National Crime Agency v Perry (November 2014, unreported)). The Perry entities then sued the NCA for the loss of investment opportunities, including an opportunity to purchase Camden Markets. The claim, which was eventually settled out of court, was in excess of £200 million.
- LMAA arbitration proceedings – Acting (led by Paul Girolami KC) for the defendants concerning a complex dispute relating to the construction of superyachts. Various serious allegations of fraud were made in the course of the proceedings, including an allegation that evidence had been manufactured by the claimant for the purposes of misleading the tribunal in the defendants' successful security for costs application. Adil also assisted with the related defamation proceedings (Ontulmus v Collett [2014] EWHC 294 (security for costs); Ontulmus v Collett [2014] EWHC 4117 (costs)). Adil is also advising (unled) in relation to related proceedings brought by a Maltese national in the courts of Malta. The claim raises potential issues of fraud and ultimately arises out of what may have been a Ponzi-type scheme implemented by a Turkish national in relation to the construction of super-yachts.

As part of the interlocutory and trial process, the Bermuda Supreme Court has handed down decisions on various issues (in relation to all of which Adil was involved), including: (i) general discovery principles and the iniquity exception to legal professional privilege ([2020] SC (Bda) 33 Com, 5 August 2020); (ii) purging contempt for breach of the implied undertaking ([2020] SC (Bda) 52 Civ, 10 December 2020); (iii) specific discovery based on "practical control" and joint interest privilege ([2020] SC (Bda) 57 Com, 30 December 2020); (iv) the withdrawal of non-admissions ([2021] SC Bda Com, 11 March 2021); (v) the approach to obtaining evidence from a third party ([2021] SC (Bda) 22 Com, 22 March 2021); (vi) the application of the open justice principle in relation to a remote hearing ([2021] SC (Bda) 32 Com, 16 April 2021); and (vii) hearsay notices ([2021] SC (Bda) 46 Com, 9 June 2021).
- Advising (unled) a Saudi national on a potential claim against a Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC) entity and a Saudi entity related to the IPO of a company on the Saudi stock exchange. The claim, if it had been brought, would likely have raised novel issues regarding the scope of the DIFC court's jurisdiction. It would also have raised complex issues of Sharia law. Very serious allegations of fraud had already been made against Adil's client by the potential defendants.
- Wong & Anor v Grand View PTC – Acting (led by Mark Howard KC and Jonathan Adkin KC) in the case raises the issue of whether the appointment of a new beneficiary and the distribution of assets to that new beneficiary amounted to a breach of trust. The case also raises issues of remoteness of vesting. Adil appeared as a called barrister in the first instance decision ([2019] SC (Bda) 37 Com (5 June 2019)) (a rare event for any junior), which was overturned by the Court of Appeal in April 2020 (Civil Appeal No. 5A of 2019, 20 April 2020) (a decision of Clarke P (formerly a Lord Justice of the English Court of Appeal)). The Privy Council allowed the appeal ([2022] UKPC 47).

- Advising (unled) the trustees of a substantial Bermuda trust which had invested large sums of money (several millions of pounds) in a fund which gave exposure to investments in a number of high-risk jurisdictions in Africa and Asia. There was a concern that the fund was in fact run as a Ponzi-type scheme.
- Acting (led by Alan Boyle KC and Jonathan Adkin KC) in relation to Beddoe proceedings brought by the trustees of very substantial non-charitable purpose trusts in Bermuda containing assets worth billions of pounds. Proprietary claims had been made against the trust funds. Adil assisted Leading Counsel in Trustee 1 & Ors v Attorney General & Ors [2015] SC (Bda) 41 Com (Bermuda), the first case to consider an application for Beddoe relief made by the trustees of a non-charitable purpose trust. Adil was also involved in all of the interlocutory applications made during the course of those lengthy Beddoe proceedings: (i) whether a particular document was disclosable and whether privilege could be maintained over it (Trustee 1 et al v Respondent 1 et al [2014] SC Bda 24 Com, overturned on appeal by the Court of Appeal for Bermuda [2014] CA (Bda) 3 Civ); (ii) discovery obligations of trustees in Beddoe proceedings (Trustee 1 et al v The Attorney General et al [2014] SC (Bda) 52 Com); (iii) whether a party to Beddoe proceedings should be able to use material disclosed in them to attack the trusts or trustees in the action to which those proceedings relate (Trustee N & Ors v The Attorney General & Ors [2015] SC (Bda) 50 Com); and (iv) the ruling as to the costs of the Beddoe proceedings (Trustee L & Ors v The Attorney General & Ors [2016] SC (Bda) 50 Com).
- Advising a Norwegian bank in respect of potential claims against the estate of a Norwegian shipping tycoon who died resident in Guernsey. The issues Adil considered included detailed analysis of how the estate regime in Guernsey worked and the routes through which an estate could be sued in circumstances where it did not have an executor or administrator. The substantive dispute related to substantial unpaid sums under various loans to the deceased and companies related to the deceased.
- Advising (with Elizabeth Jones KC) the existing beneficiaries of a discretionary Mauritian trust in relation to the decision of the trustee to add a further beneficiary.
- Vilsmeier v Al Airports International Limited & Ors [2014] JRC 257 – Advising (led by Nicholas Lavender KC) in relation to very substantial claims and cross-claims brought in Jersey by and against the former Chairman of a group of companies owning very valuable infrastructure assets across Europe. This resulted in a substantial judgment of the Royal Court. Adil acted for the companies. The claims and cross-claims gave rise to complex questions relating to the scope of a director's fiduciary duties.
